Executive Committees

Listed here are the division and discussion group executive committees for the 2015 convention year (13 Jan. 2014–11 Jan. 2015) and some committees of the American Literature Section. The dates after the names of division and discussion group executive committee members designate the conventions that conclude the final convention years of their terms. (A convention year begins after the close of one convention and continues through the close of the next; it is named for the convention that concludes the year.) These listings indicate which committee members are currently serving as chair and secretary. Normally, this year's secretary becomes next year's chair.

Expect your compact literature anthology to do more

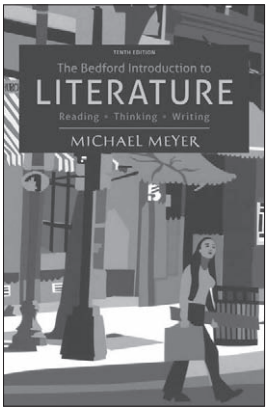

The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature

Reading • Thinking • Writing
Tenth Edition
Michael Meyer, University of Connecticut

The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature draws classic works from many periods and cultures appearing alongside the best from today's authors. Critical reading and writing support, helpful close readings, writing assignments, and student papers offer more support than comparable anthologies. Lots of options for working with the literature include in-depth chapters on major authors like Flannery O'Connor and Emily Dickinson and a new chapter created in collaboration with Dagoberto Gilb showcasing literature as a living art form.

Expect more from your literature anthology

The Bedford Introduction to Literature

Reading, Thinking, Writing
Tenth Edition
Michael Meyer, University of Connecticut

The Bedford Introduction to Literature is a best-seller for a reason: It brings literature to life for students, helping to make them lifelong readers and better writers. Classic works drawn from many periods and cultures appear alongside a strong showing from today's notable authors. There is plenty of support for students, with a dozen chapters on critical reading and writing, helpful sample close readings, writing assignments, and student papers. And, because everyone teaches and learns a little differently, there are lots of options for working with the literature, including case studies on individual works and themes that everyone can relate to. In-depth chapters on major authors like Flannery O'Connor and Emily Dickinson take students deeper into their work, and the new tenth edition features a chapter on the fiction of Dagoberto Gilb, created in collaboration with the author himself—one more way that the anthology showcases literature as a living, changing art form.

The American literature anthology made for teaching and learning

The Bedford Anthology of American Literature
Second Edition

Volume One: Beginnings to 1865 • Volume Two: 1865 to the Present • Shorter Edition: Beginnings to the Present

Susan Belasco, University of Nebraska, Lincoln and Linck Johnson, Colgate University

Here at last is an anthology that is not simply a collection of texts, but a carefully crafted tool for teaching and learning. The Bedford Anthology of American Literature helps students read, appreciate, and understand American literature with engaging author and selection introductions, generous gloss notes, and an unsurpassed illustration program. Several innovative features supply additional contexts for the literature, while others help students reflect on why American literature is relevant and worth reading today. Now also available in a shorter, single volume edition.

ALSO AVAILABLE

More value options than ever before for assigning the novels of your choice in print or e-book format

Key novels continue to be published separately as part of the Bedford College Edition series. Titles such as The Scarlet Letter, Benito Cereno, The Awakening, Daisy Miller, and My Ántonia are available in print or as Bedford e-Books to Go.

The bestselling introduction to fiction anthology where stories and their writers do the talking

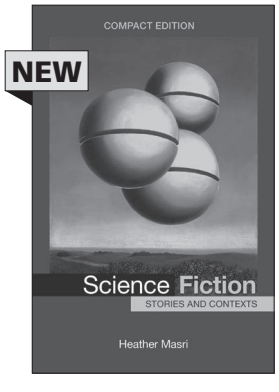

The Story and Its Writer
An Introduction to Short Fiction
Ninth Edition

The Story and Its Writer Compact
An Introduction to Short Fiction
Ninth Edition
Ann Charters, University of Connecticut

Ann Charters knows which stories work in the classroom. Instructors look forward to every new edition of her anthology to see what her constant search for new fiction and neglected classics will turn up. She offers her signature innovation: an array of the writers' own commentaries on the craft and traditions of storytelling. Also for the first time the compact edition is offered in both print and pdf e-book formats for maximum choice and flexibility.

A compact edition of "The best anthology for teaching science fiction, ever"

Science Fiction, Compact Edition
Stories and Contexts
Heather Masri, New York University

Science Fiction: Stories and Contexts, Compact Edition is designed especially for classroom use, with fiction and features that help students think and write critically about how the genre reflects and affects culture. The well-chosen stories are international and diverse, canonical and recent.

For teaching contemporary criticism and theory

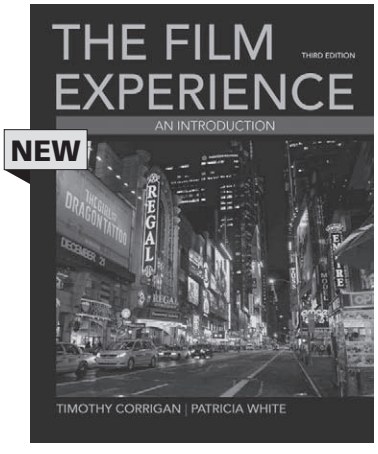

Jane Eyre
Second Edition
Charlotte Brontë
Beth Newman, Editor

This volume, based on the 1848 third edition of Bronte's classic novel, reprints the text of Jane Eyre accompanied by documents and illustrations that place the work in its historical context. It then features specially chosen essays that read Jane Eyre from several contemporary critical perspectives. The text, documents, and essays are complemented by biographical and critical introductions, bibliographies, and a glossary of critical and theoretical terms.

In this second edition, the section of cultural documents and illustrations is entirely new, as are recent exemplary critical essays that represent and synthesize several current critical approaches.

Get the full film experience—now integrated with film clips throughout.

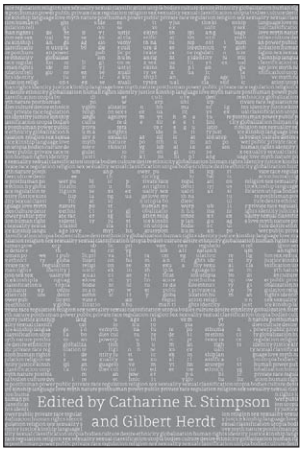

The Film Experience
An Introduction
Fourth Edition
Timothy Corrigan, University of Pennsylvania
Patricia White, Swarthmore College

In our culture, watching movies is a universal experience – but understanding film may not be. The Film Experience reaches out to students, connecting their experiences watching movies with better understanding and knowledge of the medium's full scope. And now featuring LaunchPad Solo with its game-changing new video program, this thoroughly updated new edition makes it easier than ever to link each student's personal viewing to a greater overall understanding of film.

Novelists on the Novel

Models of Mind and Consciousness

Discourses of Security, Peacekeeping Narratives, and the Cultural Imagination in Canada

Eighteenth-Century Fiction (ECF) is an international, peer-reviewed quarterly devoted to the critical and historical investigation of literature and culture of the period 1660-1832. Recognizing the fluid notions of fiction within the period, as well as the growing body of interdisciplinary work by scholars in the field, the ECF editors seek submissions that conceive of "fiction" in its broader sense and expand the frameworks of critical, historical, and theoretical discussion.

The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing

Theodore L. Blumberg

A most cogent guide to good legal writing. Blumberg emphasizes the importance of cultivating a clear and engaging prose style. He not only provides a typology of the profession's most common literary sins; he explores the motivations behind them. At once witty and exhilarating, The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing will change the way lawyers and scholars do business.

Under pressure of disbarment this book should be read and understood by every lawyer, most of whom forget they, and the judges who read their miserable briefs, are human beings.

— Gerry Spence

$7.95 paper
56 pages
ISBNs: 1-934084-04-2
978-1-934084-04-5

A remarkable and concise roadmap to more effective, intelligible and persuasive legal writing. An invaluable desktop resource.

— Theodore B. Olson

Theodore L. Blumberg practices corporate and entertainment law in Manhattan. A graduate of Temple University School of Law, he is a frequent contributor to The New York Law Journal and a lecturer in the Fahringer seminars in legal writing.

THE SCHOOL OF CRITICISM & THEORY at Cornell University

An international program of study with leading figures in critical theory invites you to apply for its 2015 Summer Session, June 14 - July 24

"The SCT combines a relentless schedule of events with a pervasive spirit of conviviality."
Martin Moraw, Brandeis University

"In this community of critics, away from the familiar ecology of one's home institution, one is offered new ways of seeing, new questions, new connections."
David Russell, Princeton University

"One of the most enriching intellectual experiences of my academic life."
Karine Côté-Boucher, York University

"Six weeks in Ithaca gave me many moments of hopefulness: I made extraordinary friends; I found space, seven years into a faculty position, to think and to argue without the pressure of writing or publication."
Andrew van der Vlies, Queen Mary, University of London

Hent de Vries, Director
Russ Family Professor in the Humanities and Philosophy, Director of The Humanities Center, Johns Hopkins University

The Program
In an intensive six-week course of study, participants from around the world, across disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, explore recent developments in critical theory.

Tuition
The fee for the session is $2700. Applicants are eligible to compete for partial tuition scholarships and are urged to seek funding from their home institutions.

Admission
We welcome applications from faculty members and advanced graduate students at universities worldwide. Applications must be submitted online by February 1, and admissions decisions are announced in March.

New Journal Issues in Queer Studies

Queer Theory without Antinormativity

An issue of differences (26:1)
Robyn Wiegman and Elizabeth A. Wilson, special issue editors

The contributors to this special issue ask a seemingly simple question: can queer theory proceed without a primary allegiance to antinormativity? These essays offer an affirmative answer either by rethinking normativity or by eschewing it altogether in redirect the intellectual and political energies of the field. $14

differences.dukejournals.org

Queering Archives: Historical Unravelings

An issue of Radical History Review (#120)
Daniel Marshall, Kevin Murphy, and Zeb Tortorici, special issue editors

What has come to be called the "queer archive" has emerged from those who both collect new materials and critique existing historical materials across varied modes of public memory work. Homing in on queer archival pasts, the archiving of disorder, and the classifications and limits of the archive, this issue historicizes the complications, omissions, and racial/gender/class implications of queer archival engagements. $14

Decolonizing the Transgender Imaginary

An issue of TSQ: Transgender Studies Quarterly (1:3)
Aren Aizura, Marcia Ochoa, Salvador Vidal-Ortiz, Trystan Cotton, and Carsten Balzer/Carla LaGata, special issue editors

This issue looks at transgender studies' roots in the global North and West and the politics that emerge from challenging the assumption that biological sex is stable and self-evident across time, space, and culture. It asks how trans scholarship can decolonize—rather than reproduce—dominant imaginaries of sexuality and gender. $12

VIRGINIA

Ersatz America
Hidden Traces, Graphic Texts, and the Mending of Democracy
Rebecca Mark
$29.50 | PAPER
Defining America as an artificial construct addicted to imaginary histories from Pocahontas to Gone with the Wind that cover up the violent acts of building a homogeneous nation, Rebecca Mark looks at the artistic record of indigenous peoples and enslaved Africans as a way of reconstructing American democracy.

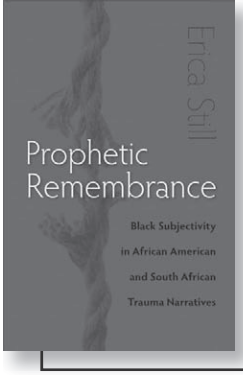

Journeys of the Slave Narrative in the Early Americas
Edited by Nicole N. Aljoe and Ian Finseth
$29.50 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES
These interdisciplinary essays on slave narratives from the Atlantic world of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries not only highlight the early origins and transnationality of the genre but also expand it beyond the iconic and ubiquitous examples.

The Pan American Imagination
Contested Visions of the Hemisphere in Twentieth-Century Literature
Stephen M. Park
$27.50 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES | AMERICAN LITERATURES INITIATIVE
In The Pan American Imagination, Stephen Park crosses academic disciplines and draws on literature and other art forms to examine the historical phenomenon of Pan Americanism and to challenge the body of knowledge produced about Latin America in the early twentieth century.

Locating the Destitute
Space and Identity in Caribbean Fiction
Stanka Radović
$24.50 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES | AMERICAN LITERATURES INITIATIVE
Combining a reading of postcolonial Caribbean literature and contemporary spatial theory, Stanka Radović shows how space is used as a metaphor to challenge the reality of space as a political fact.

Prophetic Remembrance
Black Subjectivity in African American and South African Trauma Narratives
Erica Still
$24.50 | PAPER
Bringing together contemporary African American narratives about slavery and Black South African narratives about apartheid, Erica Still shows how they reveal a black subjectivity that accepts its traumatic past but also claims a future that overcomes it.

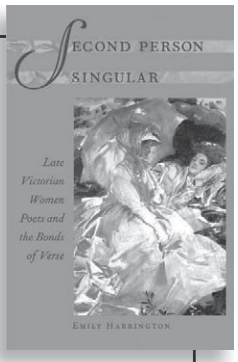

Different Shades of Green
African Literature, Environmental Justice, and Political Ecology
Byron Caminero-Santangelo
$27.50 | PAPER | UNDER THE SIGN OF NATURE
Caminero-Santangelo challenges the Western assumption that Africa has produced little environmental writing, exploring how African literature can offer powerful counternarratives to the "First World" insistence on environmental stewardship.

VISIT US AT BOOTH #324

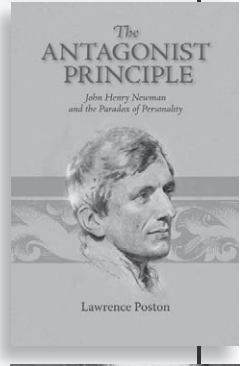

The Other Side of the Sea
Louis-Philippe Dalembert
Translated by Robert H. McCormick Jr.
Foreword by Edwidge Danticat
$22.50 | PAPER | CARAF BOOKS: CARIBBEAN AND AFRICAN LITERATURE TRANSLATED FROM FRENCH
This novel by Louis-Philippe Dalembert illuminates the intergenerational struggle within a Haitian family between a young boy eager to leave the dictatorship controlling his country and his grandmother trying to hold the family together at home.

Second Person Singular
Late Victorian Women Poets and the Bonds of Verse
Emily Harrington
$39.50 | CLOTH | VICTORIAN LITERATURE AND CULTURE SERIES
Emily Harrington shows how the concepts of intimacy, communion, and relation shape late Victorian women's verse, changing the way we think about lyric poetry as a genre produced from isolation, solitude, and subjectivity.

Personal Business
Character and Commerce in Victorian Literature and Culture
Aeron Hunt
$39.50 | CLOTH | VICTORIAN LITERATURE AND CULTURE SERIES
Drawing on a range of fiction and nonliterary sources, Aeron Hunt explores the personal dimension of business in Victorian culture and shows how character was both a mediating concept and a crucial mode of power in commercial and interpersonal life.

The Antagonist Principle
John Henry Newman and the Paradox of Personality
Lawrence Poston
$45.00 | CLOTH | VICTORIAN LITERATURE AND CULTURE SERIES
Neither a biography nor a revelation of a life, this critical study of the works and career of John Henry Newman offers a portrait of this complex and often combative Victorian theologian that resituates him as an intellectual figure of his time.

Outside the Wire
American Soldiers' Voices from Afghanistan
Edited by Christine Dumaine Leche
$16.95 | PAPER | NEW IN PAPER
In a riveting collection of thirty-eight narratives, American soldiers in Afghanistan recount the dangers of combat, the routines on base, or the impact of events from childhood or civilian life on their wartime experience.

Best New Poets 2014
50 Poems from Emerging Writers
Edited by Dorianne Laux
Series edited by Jazzy Danziger
$12.95 | PAPER
Entering its ninth year, Best New Poets has established itself as a crucial venue for rising poets and a valuable resource for poetry lovers. The only publication of its kind, this annual anthology is made up exclusively of work by writers who have not yet published a full-length book. The work of the fifty writers represented here provides the best perspective available on the continuing vitality of poetry as it is being practiced today.

Modern Languages Open (MLO)

MLO is a peer-reviewed platform for the open access publication of research from across the modern languages to a global audience.

'MLO will galvanize innovative scholarship and may indeed change the course of publishing.' Tom Conley, Abbott Lawrence Lowell Professor of Romance Languages & Literature, Harvard University.

'MLO is one of the most important initiatives for modern language research in the past decades. It will transform the nature of publishing, explicitly encouraging interdisciplinarity, ensuring that high-quality and original work is published in a timely way, and significantly enlarging and democratising both the creation and the readership of modern language research.' Michael Worton, Vice-Provost and Fielden Professor of French Language and Literature, University College London, and author of the HEFCE Review of Modern Foreign Languages provision in higher education in England.

MLO provides:

- Interdisciplinarity across the modern languages and engagement with other fields from a modern languages perspective.
- Open Access under a CC-BY licence
- Rigorous peer review pre-publication and interactivity post-publication
- Rapid turnaround from submission to publication
- Rewards for article reviewers
- Flexibility on article length from 3,000-15,000 words
- International dissemination under the imprimatur of a university press.

MLO is published by Liverpool University Press, one of the world's leading publishers in the modern languages.

THE CASE AGAINST ACADEMIC BOYCOTTS OF ISRAEL

EDITED BY CARY NELSON AND GABRIEL NOAH BRAHM

"a book which all who care about this issue must consult."Seyla Benhabib, Yale University

"a rare combination of intellectually challenging and thought-provoking investigation together with a strong dose of common sense." Eric Alterman, Brooklyn College, Media Columnist, The Nation

"the case against Academic Boycott is made with such authority that no one who cares about global politics in the 21st Century can afford not to read these pages. This is that rare event—a necessary book, a real game-changer." Marjorie Perloff, Stanford University; 2006 MLA President

"All states commit crimes. Only one in the world is deemed illegitimate for that reason: Israel. Only one is subject to cultural and academic boycotts the world over: Israel. No one could agree with everything in these essays. I do not. But in the main they are both devastating and scrupulous and they are all indispensable. Fair-minded readers who have not yet thought through the issues, including some supporters of BDS, may wish to consult their consciences as well as their sense of history and reconsider. But this indispensable book is more than a dissection of gross canards. It is an anatomy of key intellectual and political corruptions of our time." Todd Gitlin, Columbia University

Language and Literature Journals from UW Press

Contemporary Literature publishes scholarly essays on contemporary writing in English, interviews with established and emerging authors, and reviews of recent critical books in the field. The journal welcomes articles on multiple genres, including poetry, the novel, drama, creative nonfiction, new media and digital literature, and graphic narrative. As a forum for discussing issues animating the range of contemporary literary studies, CL features the full diversity of critical practices.
Published quarterly. ISSN: 0010-7484, E-ISSN: 1548-9949.

Luso-Brazilian Review publishes interdisciplinary scholarship on Portuguese, Brazilian, and Lusophone African cultures, with special emphasis on scholarly works in literature, history, and the social sciences. Each issue includes articles and book reviews, which may be written in either English or Portuguese. Occasional issues are devoted to a special topic.
Published bi-annually. ISSN: 0024-7413, E-ISSN: 1548-9957.

Founded in 1899, Monatshefte für deutschsprachige Literatur und Kultur is the oldest continuing journal of German studies in the U.S. It offers scholarly articles dealing with the literatures and cultures of German-speaking countries from both most advanced, and traditional theoretical and historical perspectives. Monatshefte is open to all scholarly approaches that help to improve our understanding of literature and culture. Each issue contains extensive book reviews of current scholarship in German Studies, and each Winter issue features Personalia, a listing of college and university German Department personnel from across the U.S. and Canada, as well as special surveys and articles dealing with professional concerns.
Published quarterly. ISSN: 0026-9271, E-ISSN: 1934-2810.

SubStance has a long-standing reputation for publishing innovative work on literature and culture. While its main focus has been on French literature and continental theory, the journal is known for its openness to original thinking in all the discourses that interact with literature, including philosophy, natural and social sciences, and the arts.
Published tri-annually. ISSN: 0049-2426, E-ISSN: 1527-2095.

LITERARY STUDIES from DUQUESNE

MILTON ON FILM

Eric C. Brown

While Paradise Lost has never yet made it to the big screen, Milton's place in the popular imagination — and his extensive influence upon the cinema, in particular — has been both pervasive and persistent. As Brown demonstrates in this seminal and comprehensive work, the history of Milton on film has been full of both ambitious visions and dazzling failures.

PREACHING THE GOSPEL OF BLACK REVOLT

Appropriating Milton in Early African American Literature

Reginald A. Wilburn

"Wilburn illuminates early African American writers' bold and ingenious interpretations of one of western literature's epic poets, John Milton. In doing so, Wilburn, like the authors he has so lucidly researched, renders 'darkness visible' for a new generation of literary scholars." — Henry Louis Gates Jr., Alphonse Fletcher University Professor, Harvard University

STAGES OF ENGAGEMENT

Drama and Religion in Post-Reformation England

Edited by James D. Mardock and Kathryn R. McPherson

Stages of Engagement, in 12 essays from a wide range of scholars, reflects a reinvigorated concern for religion's role in the early modern English stage. The essays address reformed redefinitions of intimate, sacred experience, anxiety about Calvinist determinism, attitudes toward icons and representation, and the relationship of liturgy and performance. Importantly, these intertextual discussions are grounded in a meticulously historicized viewpoint that acknowledges the often chaotic and multidirectional nature of Reformation in England.

THE LITERARY INVENTION OF MARGARET CAVENDISH

Lara Dodds

"Margaret Cavendish asserted that she read no English books, but Lara Dodds's exploration of Cavendish's engagement with her English literary predecessors comprehensively disproves that and shows that Cavendish read, in Dodds's words, 'widely, if not deeply.' . . . Sophisticated, nuanced, and finely written book." — Seventeenth-Century News

the SHELBY CULLOM DAVIS CENTER for HISTORICAL STUDIES

http://www.princeton.edu/dav/

In the Aftermath of Catastrophe

During the academic years 2014/15 and 2015/16, the Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies will focus on the topic of "In the aftermath of catastrophe." What happens in the wake of cataclysmic experiences: war, civil war, genocide, imperial collapse, natural disaster? The aim in part is to understand processes of reconstruction but not only that. How was the experience of catastrophe remembered and memorialized; how was trauma conceived and dealt with; how was the post-catastrophic present understood in relation to the pre-disaster past? As always, we hope to address these questions from a wide variety of periods and places, from prehistory to the present and from all parts of the world.
The Center will offer a limited number of research fellowships for one or two semesters, running from September to January and from February to June. Early career scholars must have their doctoral degrees in hand at the time of the application. Fellows are expected to live in Princeton in order to take an active part in the intellectual interchange with other members of the Seminar. Funds are limited, and candidates are, therefore, strongly urged to apply to other grant-giving institutions as well as the Center if they wish to come for a full year.
To apply please link to: http://jobs.princeton.edu, requisition #1400477. The deadline for receipt of applications and letters of recommendation for fellowships for 2015/2016 is December 1, 2014. Please note that we will not accept faxed applications. Applicants must apply online and submit a CV, cover letter, research proposal, abstract of proposal, and contact information for three references. For further information about the Davis Center, please go to http://www.princeton.edu/dav. Princeton University is an equal opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability status, protected veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.

Spare Parts

Four Undocumented Teenagers, One Ugly Robot, and the Battle for the American Dream

Joshua Davis

"Spare Parts is an unforgettable tale of hope and human ingenuity. Against a backdrop of urban desert decay, a faltering school system, and our country's cutthroat immigration policies, Joshua Davis offers a moving testament to how teamwork, perseverance, and a few good teachers can lift up and empower even the humblest among us."

SYMPOSIUM
A Quarterly Journal in Modern Literatures

Executive Editor
Amy S. Wyngaard
Syracuse University

HAROLD G. JONES AWARDS FOR BEST ESSAY

The Symposium editorial board is pleased to announce the creation of the Harold G. Jones Awards for Best Essay. Symposium will be awarding $1,000 prizes at the 2018 MLA Convention for the best essays published in the journal from 2015 to 2017. Three awards will be given, one in each of the following categories: graduate student, junior scholar (i.e., assistant professor), senior scholar (i.e., associate and full professor). Questions about the awards or submissions can be addressed to Editor Amy S. Wyngaard at symplit@syr.edu.

Symposium is a quarterly journal of criticism in modern literatures originating in languages other than English. Founded in 1946, the journal is housed in the Department of Languages, Literatures, and Linguistics at Syracuse University. Scholars of literature will find research on authors, themes, periods, genres, works, and theory, often through comparative or interdisciplinary studies.

Writing Blue Highways
William Least Heat-Moon
978-0-8262-2026-4 | $24.95

"In recounting the prolonged, often painful labor that finally resulted in the birth of his beautifully alive book, Heat-Moon provides far more illuminating detail on what's required to write (or, more exactly, to write well) than any follow-these-steps "practical" manual. As readers of Heat-Moon's books know, one never regrets following his lead. Although "Writing 'Blue Highways'" takes us on a distinctly different sort of journey—through more a mental than physical landscape—Heat-Moon again proves an expert and companionable guide."

WestVirginiaUniversity.
PhD in English

West Virginia University invites applications to the Ph.D. program in English. We offer the opportunity to work in American Literature, British Literature, Cultural Studies, Literary Theory and Criticism, Gender and Sexuality Studies, Transnational and Multiethnic Literature, Composition and Rhetoric, and the History and Structure of the English Language, among other fields. Our strengths in American Studies, Cultural Studies, Ecocriticism, and Gender Studies are nationally recognized.

We are committed to funding all our doctoral students fully and at nationally competitive levels, with guaranteed five-year graduate teaching assistantships (G.T.A.s) and the opportunity for dissertation fellowships. Our small department size ensures dedicated mentoring and professional training by an internationally renowned faculty. Our training and support in the teaching of composition is among the most rigorous in the country; doctoral students also enjoy opportunities to teach a wide array of literature courses. Between 2005 and 2014, seventy-two percent of students who graduated from West Virginia University with a Ph.D. in English received tenure-track jobs.

West Virginia University is a Carnegie RU/H (Research University/high research activity) institution located in Morgantown, WV about seventy miles south of Pittsburgh, PA. The Department of English maintains graduate programs in Literature (M.A., Ph.D.), Creative Writing (M.F.A.), and Professional Writing and Editing (M.A., Ph.D.). We also house the Appalachian Prison Book Project, the Center for Literary Computing, the Center for Writing Excellence, and the internationally esteemed journal Victorian Poetry.

NYU Madrid

M.A. Programs in Spanish and Latin American Linguistic, Literary and Cultural Studies (Concentrations in Literary and Cultural Studies or Applied Linguistics), and in Teaching Spanish as a Foreign Language with TESOL

Drawing on the resources of NYU and the city of Madrid, the M.A. brings a transatlantic perspective to the study of the Spanish-speaking world. M.A. candidates study at NYU Madrid's site and the historic Instituto Internacional, both close to the city center. Day and weekend study-visits, guest lectures, and a Graduate Research Symposium complete the academic program. Students in Literary and Cultural Studies or Applied Linguistics complete the M.A. in one year, and may take courses at the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid. Students in Teaching Spanish as a Foreign Language complete a second year in New York.

OTHERWISE FABLES

For your personal delight and your college library, by Oscar Mandel, the author of A Definition of Tragedy, Philoctetes and the Fall of Troy, Fundamentals of the Art of Poetry, The Theatre of Don Juan, and more.

CONTENTS: Gobble-Up Stories. The Tiger Who Became Humane, The Flattered Hippopotamus, The Lunatic Pigeon, and 44 other original fables. Second edition, augmented and revised. Chi Po and the Sorcerer. The Tao-scented tale of a lad who, guided by a lazy sorcerer, came to paint the immortal Sparrow Swallowing a Worm. Revised second edition. The History of Sigismund, Prince of Poland. A bloodily funny and strongly meaningful saga plucked from Calderón's Life is a Dream. Never before published.

"A wonderful rampage of imagination." New York Times. "Refreshing, witty, and thoroughly engaging". International Herald Tribune. "With no fanfare, and no apparent public realization of the fact, we have been given a genuine masterpiece." The Indian P.E.N. "There is something here for children, for connoisseurs of literature, and for the sophisticate." Los Angeles Times. "Full of unexpected points and deep lessons, biting jest." Der Bund (Bern).

Approaches to Teaching Chaucer's Canterbury Tales
SECOND EDITION

Peter W. Travis and Frank Grady, eds.

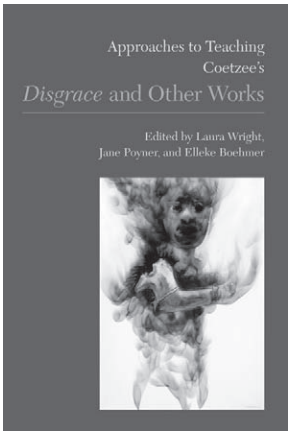

"A worthy and needed successor to the 1980 edition, this volume charts in comprehensive fashion the goals that Chaucerians now have when they teach The Canterbury Tales and the methods they have devised to achieve them."

—Warren Ginsberg
Knight Professor of Humanities
University of Oregon

Literary Research Guide

The new, sixth edition of James L. Harner's Literary Research Guide is now available in a searchable online format for individuals.

"Animatedly, energetically, enthusiastically, and vigorously recommended . . . it should serve as a model for bringing a printed reference online."
—Library Journal

Updated regularly, the Literary Research Guide is a selective, annotated guide to reference sources essential to the study of British literature, literatures of the United States, other literatures in English, and related topics.

The annotations for each work

- describe its type, scope, major limitations, and organization
- evaluate coverage, organization, and accuracy
- explain its uses in research
- note related works, including ones not accorded separate entries in the Guide

The sixth edition of the Literary Research Guide contains over 1,000 entries, which refer to more than 1,600 additional resources and cite over 700 reviews. The Guide also shows how scholars identify and locate primary and secondary works.

Entries can be looked up in WorldCat and Google Books, and the Guide offers flexible search options.

APPROACHES TO TEACHING WORLD LITERATURE

Now more than one hundred volumes, the MLA's popular Approaches to Teaching World Literature series addresses a broad range of literary texts. Each volume surveys teaching aids and critical material and brings together essays that apply a variety of perspectives to the teaching of the text. In these essays, experienced teachers discuss approaches and methods of presentation that they have found effective in keeping classroom discussions lively.

Unless otherwise noted, each volume is available in a cloth edition for $37.50 (MLA members $26.25) and in a paper edition for $19.75 (MLA members $13.83).

COMMONS

commons.mla.org

MLA Commons helps facilitate more interactive member-to-member communication, supports the work of divisions and discussion groups, and provides a space for members to share research. On the Commons, members can work collaboratively and explore new modes of scholarship.

Come visit MLA Commons at the new MLA PubCentral, located inside the Vancouver Convention Centre (Prefunction level 1, West Building). Staff members will be available to show you how to activate your account and use the site.
