An Introduction to Moroccan Arabic and Culture

Abdellah Chekayri

"It is my hope that An Introduction to Moroccan Arabic and Culture will be the harbinger of effective dialect learning and teaching materials to come. That is to say, ones like these that are replete with communicative activities adroitly set in their cultural context, and it is particularly useful for anyone who has studied Modern Standard Arabic."

New & Recent Texts from OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS HIGHER EDUCATION GROUP

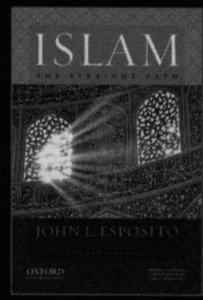

A lively survey of the modern Middle East with a clear and strong perspective

"Gelvin evokes a fascinating tale of the intersection of the forces of progress, reformation, revolution, and imperialism that have collectively defined the modern Middle East. His cogent and crisply written history now sets the standard for serious surveys of the region."

—Ussama Makdisi, Rice University

Newly revised and updated, the third edition of The Modern Middle East explores how the forces associated with global modernity have shaped the social, economic, cultural, and political life in the region. The third edition features extensive revisions to the Introduction and Parts III and IV; an entirely rewritten chapter on political Islam; new vignettes and document selections; and a new photo essay.

2011 400 pp. paper $49.95

A best-selling survey text by world-renowned scholar John L. Esposito

"This is an excellent, comprehensive, and highly accessible introduction to Islam and its civilization; Muslims and their societies in the pre-modern to the modern period; and contemporary intellectual and political trends. It really is the single best introduction to Islam and Muslims today."

—Asma Afsaruddin, University of Notre Dame

This exceptionally successful survey text introduces the faith, belief, and practice of Islam from its earliest origins up to its contemporary resurgence. The fourth edition features updated and expanded coverage of Islam and politics; more extensive treatment of early Islam; an enhanced art program; a new appendix; and a free 6-month subscription to Oxford Islamic Studies Online.

2010 352 pp. paper $45.95

Atatürk

An Intellectual Biography

M. Şükrü Hanioğlu

"This is the best book on Mustafa Kemal Atatürk ever written. Hanioğlu deals with virtually every single aspect of Atatürk's biography without drowning in the partisan battles surrounding it. I am certain that this powerful book will become a classic."
—Cemil Aydin, author of The Politics of Anti-Westernism in Asia

A History of Palestine

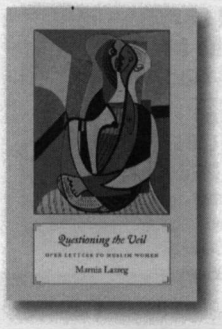

From the Ottoman Conquest to the Founding of the State of Israel

Gudrun Krämer

Translated by Graham Harman & Gudrun Krämer

"The 400 years before the founding of the Jewish state is a historiographical minefield, but Krämer . . . manages to produce an illuminating survey of the terrain."

Questioning the Veil

Open Letters to Muslim Women

Marnia Lazreg

"[Lazreg] has issued a call for frank and unmediated conversation among Muslim women. In a series of four letters that assert the major points of contention—modesty, sexual harassment, cultural identity, conviction, and piety—she lays bare the issues, apologetics, and real lives of veiled Muslim women in an unprecedented fashion."

DESCRIPTION

The Middle East Studies Association (MESA) is a private, non-profit, non-political learned society that brings together scholars, educators and those interested in the study of the region from all over the world. From its inception in 1966 with 50 founding members, MESA has increased its membership to more than 2,600 and now serves as an umbrella organization for more than sixty institutional members and forty-two affiliated organizations. The association is a constituent society of the American Council of Learned Societies, the National Council of Area Studies Associations, and a member of the National Humanities Alliance. As part of its goal to advance learning, facilitate communication and promote cooperation, MESA sponsors an annual meeting that is a leading international forum for scholarship, intellectual exchange and pedagogical innovation. It is responsible for the International Journal of Middle East Studies, the premiere journal on the region, the Review of Middle East Studies, and a quarterly newsletter. An awards program recognizes scholarly achievement, service to the profession, and exemplary students. MESA is governed by a nine-member Board of Directors elected by the membership.

MESA is a nonprofit corporation with tax exempt status. Contributions to the Association are deductible under both U.S. Federal and British income tax regulations.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Middle East Studies Association (MESA) is a non-political association that fosters the study of the Middle East, promotes high standards of scholarship and teaching, and encourages public understanding of the region and its peoples through programs, publications and services that enhance education, further intellectual exchange, recognize professional distinction, and defend academic freedom.
