Notes for Contributors

1. All submissions should be made via the online submission system of the journal – http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/nbfr. Submissions should be made anonymous for blind review.

2. Submissions will not be considered for publication if they have been previously published in English or are currently being considered for publication elsewhere.

3. Submissions should normally be 5-7500 words in length, including notes, though longer articles may sometimes be considered. Submissions should include a word count.

4. All submissions should have an abstract (150-200 words) and 5 keywords describing the contents of the article, for web searching purposes.

5. Submissions may follow either UK or US spelling conventions and punctuation, provided that they are consistent.

6. Single quotation marks should be used for quotations, except for those quotations that appear with another quotation. For example: 'She reported him as saying, "I will not comply"'.

7. Foreign words/phrases should appear in italics

8. All quotations of texts in a foreign language should be translated. Greek, Hebrew, etc. should be transliterated.

9. References should appear in footnotes, which should be numbered sequentially throughout the article.

10. References should follow these formats:

(i) Gerald O'Collins, Christology: A Biblical, Historical, and Systematic Study of Jesus (Oxford: Oxford University Press, 1995), p. 29.

(ii) John P. Galvin, 'Before the Holy Mystery: Karl Rahner's Thought on God', Toronto Journal of Theology 9 (1993), pp.229–37.

(iii) Werner G. Jeanrod, 'Hans Kung', in David F. Ford, ed., The Modern Theologians: An Introduction to Christian Theology in the Twentieth Century (Oxford: Blackwell, 1997), pp. 162–78.

Wiley's Corporate Citizenship initiative seeks to address the environmental, social, economic, and ethical challenges faced in our business and which are important to our diverse stakeholder groups. Since launching the initiative, we have focused on sharing our content with those in need, enhancing community philanthropy, reducing our carbon impact, creating global guidelines and best practices for paper use, establishing a vendor code of ethics, and engaging our colleagues and other stakeholders in our efforts. Follow our progress at www.wiley.com/go/citizenship

Wiley is a founding member of the UN-backed HINARI, AGORA, and OARE initiatives. They are now collectively known as Research4Life, making online scientific content available free or at nominal cost to researchers in developing countries.
