SUBMISSION RULES

The following submission rules were established by the APSA Committee on the Annual Meeting:

- Submit up to two sole-authored papers or two organized panel proposals. Additional proposals from the same author or organizer will not be accepted.
- Submit each proposal to no more than two Divisions.
- All paper proposals will be considered for poster presentation.

You can view, edit, or delete submissions until the call for papers deadline through your MyAPSA account at www.apsanet.org.

ACCEPTANCE NOTIFICATION

In March 2013, you will receive an acceptance or rejection email from the division chair for each proposal you submitted. If accepted for a panel or poster presentation, the email will indicate the division for which you are accepted. If your proposal is not immediately accepted for a panel or poster, you may be contacted at a later date to present if spaces become available on the program. You will receive additional detailed information regarding your panel or poster session from the division or panel chair.

ANNUAL MEETING PARTICIPATION RULES

When submitting panel and individual paper proposals, please follow the following five participation rules which were developed and maintained by the APSA Council.

Rule 1: Participation Limitation

Participation in the Annual Meeting is limited to two (2) appearances on sessions organized by the APSA Program Committee, Organized Sections, and Related Groups. An appearance may take the form of paper or roundtable presenter, discussant, or chair. Appearances in workshops, poster sessions, evening sessions, and panels sponsored or co-sponsored by the Annual Meeting program chair(s) do not count against the participation limit.

If a person is appearing during a panel session as a paper giver, roundtable presenter, or discussant, serving as chair of the same session does not count as an additional appearance. A person may appear on the program only once as the sole author of a paper unless one of his/her single-authored papers is on a panel organized by Division 9: Teaching and Learning in Political Science or Division 10: Political Science Education.

Rule 2: Preregistration

The APSA Council requires all program participants to preregister by June 1, 2013. Participants who do not preregister by June 1 will not be listed in the Preliminary Program. Participants added to the program after June 1 should preregister within 10 days of their notification.

Rule 3: Exempt Participants

Prospective participants may request of a division chair or panel organizer an exemption from the preregistration requirement if they are:

a) not a political scientist;
b) appearing on only one panel; and
c) not an exempt participant in 2012.

An exempt participant receives a badge for admission to all Annual Meeting activities but will not receive an Annual Meeting Program or the reduced hotel rate.

Rule 4: Paper Delivery

As a paper presenter, you have two important obligations:

a) to ensure that the members of your panel, especially discussants, receive your paper in time to read it carefully prior to the meeting; and

b) to submit your paper to PROceedings, APSA's online collection of Annual Meeting papers. NOTE: Your paper should not be considered published because it is posted online.

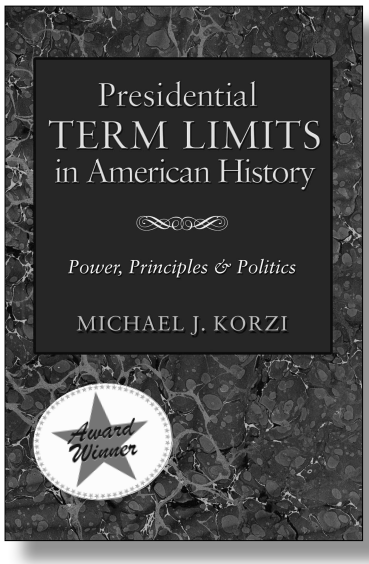

Rule 5: Panel Schedule

Panels are scheduled in fourteen (14) time slots beginning at 8:00 a.m. on Thursday and concluding at 12:00 noon on Sunday. Participants are expected to be available for any of the fourteen time slots. If your schedule is limited by a teaching or travel constraint, inform the division chair or panel organizer upon your acceptance as a participant, or by March 26, 2013.

Please note that due to the large number of panelists on the meeting program, scheduling requests are not guaranteed. ■

Perspectives on Politics

Published for the American Political Science Association

Editor
Jeffrey C. Isaac, Indiana University, USA

Perspectives on Politics seeks to provide a space for broad and synthetic discussion within the political science profession and between the profession and the broader scholarly and reading publics. Such discussion necessarily draws on and contributes to the scholarship published in the more specialized journals that dominate our discipline. At the same time, Perspectives seeks to promote a complementary form of broad public discussion and synergistic understanding within the profession that is essential to advancing research and promoting scholarly community.

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

Perspectives on Politics is sold ONLY as part of a joint subscription with American Political Science Review and PS: Political Science & Politics.
