THE LINGUISTIC SOCIETY OF AMERICA

The LSA was founded in 1924 for the advancement of the scientific study of language. The Society serves its nearly 7,000 personal and institutional members through scholarly meetings, publications, and special activities designed to advance the discipline. An interest in linguistics is the only requirement for membership.

Membership is for a calendar year. It includes the quarterly journal Language (March, June, September, December) and the LSA Bulletin (issued a minimum of four times per year, one issue a membership directory). Members have the privilege of submitting papers for publication in Language, may propose papers for the Annual Meeting, and may take advantage of reduced subscription rates to a number of linguistics journals.

Among its special educational activities are the Linguistic Institutes held every other summer in odd-numbered years and co-sponsored by a host university. Inaugurated in 1928, these Institutes provide intensive training in applied and theoretical linguistics on the graduate and undergraduate level. LSA student members may apply for tuition fellowships; visiting scholars are welcome.

New From OXFORD

Language and Woman's Place

Text and Commentaries
Revised Edition

ROBIN TOLMACH LAKOFF
Edited by MARY BUCHOLTZ

The 1975 publication of Language and Woman's Place, with its argument that language is fundamental to gender inequality, inaugurated language and gender research. This volume presents the original text along with commentaries by Lakoff and 26 other leading scholars of language, gender, and sexuality. The new edition places the text in a contemporary context for a new generation of readers.

(Studies in Language and Gender)
2004 paper $24.95 cloth $75.00

Structuring Sense

Volume 1: In Name Only
Volume 2: The Normal Course of Events

HAGIT BORER

"Syntacticians like Borer define the big research questions for the rest of us. Two provocative and inspiring books."—Angelika Kratzer

"A truly impressive achievement."
—Noam Chomsky

Structuring Sense explores the difference between words however defined and structures however constructed. The work's reformulation, in these first two of three volumes, of how grammar and lexicon interact has profound implications for linguistic, philosophical, and psychological theories about human mind and language.

2004
Vol. 1 paper $29.95 cloth $85.00
Vol. 2 paper $29.95 cloth $85.00

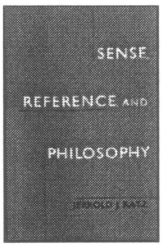

Structures and Beyond

Volume 3: The Cartography of Syntactic Structures

Edited by ADRIANA BELLETTI

The eight articles in this collection go beyond strictly mapping syntactic properties, touching on broader theoretical questions related to Noam Chomsky's Minimalist Program in particular. The reputation of the contributors and cutting-edge research will interest scholars and students of generative linguistics.

(Oxford Studies in Comparative Syntax)
2004 paper $45.00 cloth $85.00

Sense, Reference, and Philosophy

JERROLD J. KATZ

Sense, Reference, and Philosophy develops the far-reaching consequences for philosophy of adopting non-Fregean intensionalism, showing that long-standing problems in the philosophy of language, and indeed other areas, that appeared intractable can now be solved. In each case, a non-Fregean intentionalism provides a philosophically more satisfying solution.

The Structure of CP and IP

The Cartography of Syntactic Structures
Volume 2

Edited by LUIGI RIZZI

The purpose of this edited volume is to study the structure of the inflectional field and the left peripheral field of clauses, often described as the systems of IP and CP. This text will be useful to scholars of Italian and Romance languages, and of substantial value to all linguists interested in contemporary research in generative grammar.

INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

LANGUAGE, the journal of the Linguistic Society of America, carries technical articles dealing with problems of linguistic science, reviews of recently published linguistic works, and notes of interest to professional linguists.

MANUSCRIPTS for publication and exchange JOURNALS should be sent to the Editor of LANGUAGE (Brian D. Joseph, 202 Mount Hall, The Ohio State University, 1050 Carmack Road, Columbus, OH 43210; language@ling.ohio-state.edu). BOOKS for review should be sent to the Review Editor of LANGUAGE (Stanley Dubinsky, Linguistics Program, University of South Carolina, Columbia, SC 29208; dubinsky@sc.edu). Manuscripts of articles and reviews should be submitted in FOUR ANONYMOUS copies; they will not be returned. An anonymized pdf and/or Word version of the paper should also be sent, either as an e-mail attachment or on a diskette; such electronic submissions are NOT to be sent in place of hard copies, however. Authors should also send a brief (c. 250-word) abstract to language@ling.ohio-state.edu. Normally at least one author of any article or review article submitted to LANGUAGE must be a member of the Society.

Manuscript form. Authors of articles submitted to LANGUAGE are not required to follow the LANGUAGE style sheet in preparing their manuscripts for initial submission to LANGUAGE. There is no restriction on the format of manuscripts, although authors should make their submissions as reader-friendly as possible. Any manuscript, however, that has been accepted for publication as an article will have to be revised so as to conform strictly to the LANGUAGE style sheet. For the complete style sheet, see the December LSA Bulletin, the LANGUAGE web page at www.lsadc.org/language/, or write to the editors.

This policy does not apply to book reviews and book notices. These are all solicited by the Review Editor and they must adhere as closely as possible to the LANGUAGE style sheet on first submission.
