Lord, F. Some relations between Guttman's principal components of scale analys's and other psychometric theory. Psychometrika, 1958, 23, 291–296.

The conclusions reached apply only for tests composed of dichotomous items.

Luce, R. Duncan. A choice theory analysis of similarity judgments. Psychometrika, 1961, 26, 151–163.

Dr. Raymond A. Wiesen of the Lincoln Laboratories, Lexington, Massachusetts, has kindly pointed out that five inequalities were reversed. They are in the last two lines on p. 157 and in lines 11, 14, and the first inequality of line 16 on p. 159.

The names of the following members of the Psychometric Society should have appeared in the list of such members which was published in the March 1963 issue of Psychometrika.
