What to Read Now

"Compulsively readable...
Burt's insightful commentary draws throughlines between eras and poets, making this a valuable text for the classroom and a dynamic and comprehensive collection for casual readers."—Publishers Weekly

"What a gift, this book."
—Chen Chen, author of Your Emergency Contact Has Experienced an Emergency

"A richly researched, nuclear portrait of the earlier life and working processes of a writer who not only shone light into one of the great literary minds of the twentieth century, but, in the process, became one in his own right"
—Eimear McBride, Times Literary Supplement

"One of contemporary American fiction's most fearless writers of conscience explores the idea of the outsider in literature." —Lit Hub

"Makes palpable [Nguyen's] intellectual understanding of an artist's role in the political discourse." —Vanity Fair

A pioneering social history of French writers during the Age of Revolution, from a world-renowned scholar.

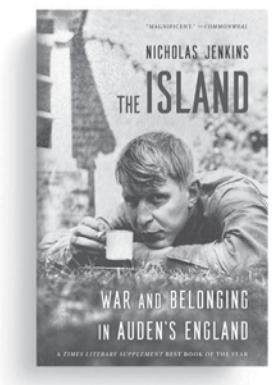

"The debates pursued here remain enduringly lively ones, in which Darnton's contributions will continue to echo, entertain and enlighten."
—Simon Macdonald, History Today

One of the Top 10 "Books We Love"—Fresh Air

"[This] new monumental volume of Dickinson's letters, the first in over 60 years, gives us [a] woman in conversation with the world."
—Maureen Corrigan, Fresh Air

"A new, definitive edition that collects, reorders, and freshly annotates every surviving letter."—New Yorker

A TLS BEST BOOK OF THE YEAR

"What makes [this book] so magnificent,
from this historian's perspective, is the way it locates Auden's work not only in the life of Auden himself—this much others have done—but also in the life of his nation and his people for a new generation of readers."
—James Chappel, Commonweal

"An imaginative and unpredictable time-travel tale." —Kirkus Reviews

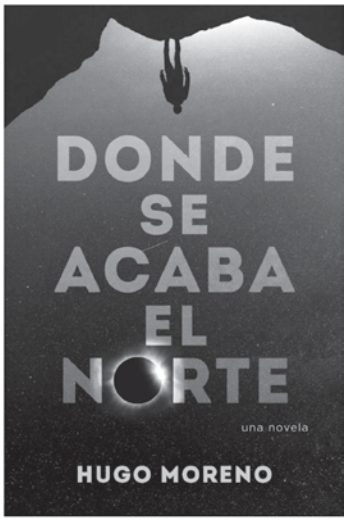

Where the North Ends

A novel by Hugo Moreno

Foreword by Francisco A. Lomelí

After a fatal accident, Uriel Romero wakes in the body of a Franciscan novice accused of heresy. Trapped in Colonial New Mexico, he must unravel the mystery of his predicament before the Inquisition burns him at the stake.

This time-travel saga, reminiscent of Cortázar's Night Face Up and Castaneda's Journey to Ixtlan, weaves history, mysticism, and existential mystery into a captivating narrative of fate, love, and redemption.

SEL Studies in English Literature 1500–1900 welcomes your submissions to mc.manuscriptcentral.com/sel

SEL focuses on four centuries of British literature in rotating, quarterly issues: English Renaissance, Tudor and Stuart Drama, Restoration and Eighteenth Century, and Nineteenth Century. The editors select learned, readable papers that contribute significantly to the understanding of British literature from 1500 to 1900. Long recognized for its commissioned omnibus reviews of current scholarship—now organized into thematic categories—SEL has expanded its offerings with the Living Discourse Initiative, comprised of a suite of new features including "SEL: The Interview," "SEL: The Roundtable," and "SEL: The Exchange."

Published 4 times per year: Winter, Spring, Summer, and Fall.
P-ISSN: 0039-3657; E-ISSN: 1522-9270.

MLA Guide to Digital Literacy

Third Edition, updated with AI guidance

Ellen C. Carillo

PAPERBACK • ISBN 978-1-60329-739-4
List price: $26.00
Member price: $18.20

E-BOOK • ISBN 978-1-60329-740-0
List price: $26.00

The third edition of this best-selling classroom guide helps students understand why digital literacy is a crucial skill for their education, future careers, and participation in democracy. The guide's hands-on activities, germane readings, and lesson plans give students strategies for reading and analyzing data visualizations; finding and evaluating credible sources; learning how to spot fake news; fact-checking; crafting a research question; effectively conducting searches on Google and on library catalogs and databases; finding peer-reviewed publications; evaluating primary sources; and understanding disinformation and misinformation, filter bubbles, propaganda, and satire in a variety of sources.

New to the third edition:

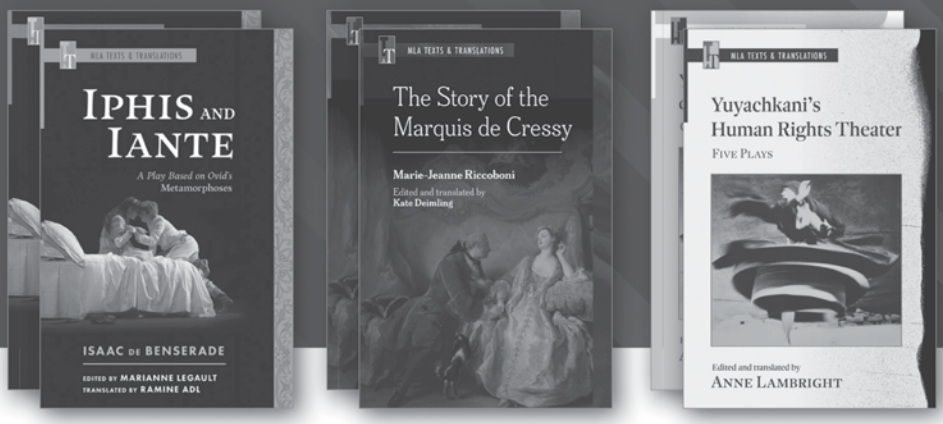

- a chapter on generative AI (GenAI) including information on how GenAI is trained, uses of GenAI tools, GenAI-powered search engines, prompting GenAI, and evaluating GenAI output
- a consideration of ethical issues related to GenAI, including impacts on the environment and on intellectual property, privacy, and bias in searches
- a discussion of GenAI and plagiarism
- an updated discussion of deepfakes, fake headlines, and other forms of misinformation
- student exercises on using GenAI
- a lesson plan that invites students to reflect on the benefits and limitations of using GenAI to support their reading practices

THE FUTURE

depends on how we teach the past.

Teach what matters with Throughlines

Throughlines offers nuanced approaches to the texts, concepts, theories, and histories you're already teaching. The materials feature new ways for you to engage with premodern texts and materials without requiring you to overhaul your existing syllabi. On Throughlines you'll find:

Curated pedagogical videos from leading scholars of premodern critical race studies.

Suggested reading lists spanning from the ancient Mediterranean to the early 19th century.

Classroom assignments that engage students and develop their research and analytical skills.

Scholarship that doesn't flinch but leans into the complexity and contradictions inherent in studying premodern history, literature, and culture.

A selected annotated bibliography of foundational texts in premodern critical race studies.

Freshen up your lesson plans today at throughlines.org.
