The treatment of the various forms of chronic non-suppurative inflammatory affections of the middle ear will be considered in a subsequent paper.

NOTES.

THE BRITISH LARYNGOLOGICAL, RHINOLOGICAL, AND OTOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION.

THE annual dinner of the Association was held at the Imperial Restaurant, Regent Street, W., on March 13, the President, Dr. Wyatt Wingrave, being in the chair. After the usual loyal toast, that of "The Association" was proposed by Dr. Urban Pritchard, President of the Otological Society, and was responded to by Dr. Wyatt Wingrave. Dr. Wingrave proposed the "Kindred Societies and Visitors," and Mr. Thomas Nunn, Consulting Surgeon to the Central London Throat and Ear Hospital, and Captain Hayward Pinch, of the Medical Graduates' College, replied. Dr. Dundas Grant proposed "The Officers," and the President responded. During the evening songs were rendered by Madame Lori Recoschevitz, Miss Rymer, Dr. Daniel, and Mr. Smith, while Mr. H. J. Fish gave several banjo selections. Mr. Reginald Clark acted as pianist.
