The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature

Reading • Thinking • Writing
Tenth Edition
Michael Meyer, University of Connecticut

In The Compact Bedford Introduction to Literature, classic works from many periods and cultures appear alongside the best from today's authors. Its critical reading and writing advice, sample close readings, writing assignments, and student papers offer more help for students than comparable anthologies. Lots of options for working with the literature include in-depth chapters on major authors like Flannery O'Connor and Emily Dickinson. A new chapter created in collaboration with Dagoberto Gilb showcases literature as a living art form.

Reading Children's Literature
A Critical Introduction

Carrie Hintz, Queens College
Eric L. Tribunella, University of Southern Mississippi

Informed by recent scholarship and interest in cultural studies and critical theory, Reading Children's Literature: A Critical Guide is a compact core text that introduces students to the historical contexts, genres, and issues of children's literature. A beautifully designed and illustrated supplement to the individual literary works assigned, it provides helpful apparatus that makes it a complete resource for working with children's literature both during and after the course.

Feeling Beauty

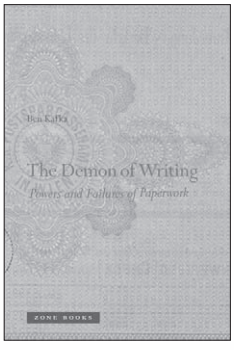

The Sister Arts and the Neuroscience of Aesthetic Experience

G. Gabrielle Starr

"No prior work has so firmly established that neuroscience and aesthetics can be mutually illuminating. Informed by her rich knowledge of art history and literature, Starr deciphers brain scans with unprecedented subtlety, drawing important lessons about the embodied nature of aesthetic experience and the hidden unity of seemingly disparate arts."

— Jesse Prinz, CUNY Graduate Center; author of The Conscious Brain, Beyond Human Nature, and Furnishing the Mind

The Demon of Writing

Powers and Failures of Paperwork

Ben Kafka

A history and theory of the powers, the failures, and even the pleasures of paperwork.

Distributed for Zone Books • 232 pp., 9 illus., $28.95 cloth

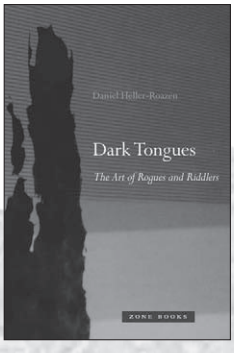

Ghostly Apparitions

German Idealism, the Gothic Novel, and Optical Media

Stefan Andriopoulos

A media archaeology that traces connections between new media technologies and distinct cultural realms, considering topics that range from Kant's philosophy to somnambulist clairvoyants.

Distributed for Zone Books • 256 pp., 10 illus., $28.95 cloth

Dark Tongues

The Art of Rogues and Riddlers

Daniel Heller-Roazen

An exploration of secret languages, moving among hermetic artificial tongues as diverse as criminal jargons and divine speech.

Distributed for Zone Books • 240 pp., $27.95 cloth

Storytelling and the Sciences of Mind

David Herman

"In this book, David Herman pioneers a transdisciplinary approach in which, rather than simply importing concepts from cognitive science and neuroscience, he brings research from narrative and science together to illuminate a common problem. A must-read not only for specialists in narrative but for anyone interested in the mutual actions of 'worlding a story' and 'storying a world.'"

— N. Katherine Hayles, Professor of Literature, Duke University; author of How We Think: Digital Media and Contemporary Technogenesis

456 pp., 34 illus., $45 cloth

Scripting Reading Motions

The Codex and the Computer as Self-Reflexive Machines

Manuel Portela

An exploration of what experimental literature in both print and programmable media tells us about the act of reading.

From Owlworks

An Essay on the Original of Literature

Daniel Defoe

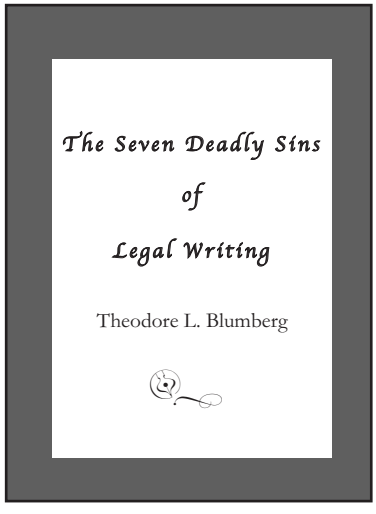

The young Daniel Defoe thought he was destined to become a Presbyterian minister. Instead, he became a man of letters: poet, political journalist, economic essayist, novelist. His Essay on the Original of Literature is a writer's glorification of the invention and craft of literature, radically understood.

The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing

Theodore L. Blumberg

A supremely cogent guide to good legal writing. Blumberg not only provides a sleek typology of the profession's most common literary sins; he explores the motivations behind them. At once witty and exhilarating, The Seven Deadly Sins of Legal Writing will change the way lawyers and scholars do business.

THE SCHOOL OF CRITICISM & THEORY at Cornell University

An international program of study with leading figures in critical theory invites you to apply for its 2014 Summer Session, June 15 - July 25

IN NEW YORK STATE'S FINGER LAKES REGION

"One of the most enriching intellectual experiences of my academic life."
Karine Côté-Boucher, York University

"This summer odyssey transformed not only many ideas I previously had about theory and criticism, but also the very experience of being an academic."
Katarzyna Bojarska, Polish Academy of Sciences

"In this community of critics, away from the familiar ecology of one's home institution, one is offered new ways of seeing, new questions, new connections."
David Russell, Princeton University

"At SCT the exposure to learning is absolutely open and continuous."
Stefano Selenu, Brown University

"At SCT there is a spirit of lively, respectful exchange, serious commitment to critical dialogue, and actual interest in listening to others."
Lynda Paul, Yale University

"Our classroom was a rich mosaic of heterogeneous disciplinary backgrounds and interests."
Alicia Garcia, Johns Hopkins University

The Program
In an intensive six-week course of study, participants from around the world, across disciplines in the humanities and social sciences, explore recent developments in critical theory.

Tuition
The fee for the session is $2700. Applicants are eligible to compete for partial tuition scholarships and are urged to seek funding from their home institutions.

Admission
We welcome applications from faculty members and advanced graduate students at universities worldwide. Applications must be submitted online by February 1, and admissions decisions are announced in March.

Modern Languages Open (MLO)

MLO is a peer-reviewed platform for the open access publication of research from across the modern languages to a global audience.

'MLO will galvanize innovative scholarship and may indeed change the course of publishing.' Tom Conley, Abbott Lawrence Lowell Professor of Romance Languages & Literature, Harvard University.

'MLO is one of the most important initiatives for modern language research in the past decades. It will transform the nature of publishing, explicitly encouraging interdisciplinarity, ensuring that high-quality and original work is published in a timely way, and significantly enlarging and democratising both the creation and the readership of modern language research.' Michael Worton, Vice-Provost and Fielden Professor of French Language and Literature, University College London, and author of the HEFCE Review of Modern Foreign Languages provision in higher education in England.

MLO provides:

- Interdisciplinarity across the modern languages and engagement with other fields from a modern languages perspective.
- Open Access under a CC-BY licence
- Rigorous peer review pre-publication and interactivity post-publication
- Rapid turnaround from submission to publication
- Rewards for article reviewers
- Flexibility on article length from 3,000-15,000 words
- International dissemination under the imprimatur of a university press.

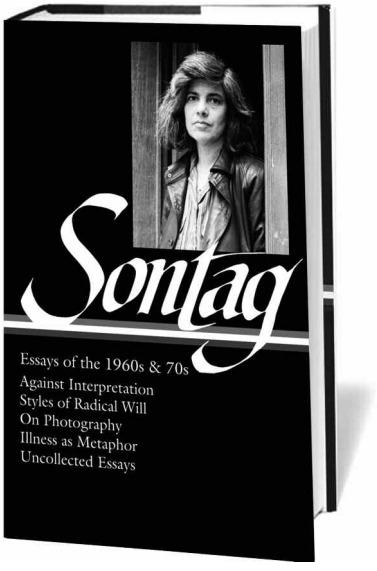

MLO is published by Liverpool University Press, one of the world's leading publishers in the modern languages.

SUSAN SONTAG
Essays of the 1960s & 70s

David Rieff, editor

Susan Sontag was a catalyzing presence whether writing about camp sensibility, the films of Jean-Luc Godard and Alain Resnais, her experiences as a traveler to Hanoi at the height of the Vietnam War, the aesthetics of science-fiction and pornography, or a range of modern thinkers from Simone Weil to E. M. Cioran. This Library of America volume presents the full texts of four essential books: Against Interpretation (1966), Styles of Radical Will (1969), On Photography (1977), and Illness as Metaphor (1978), as well as six previously uncollected essays, a chronology of Sontag's life, and detailed notes.

Jeffrey Miller
978-0-7735-4163-4 $29.95 paper
978-0-7735-4162-7 $100.00 cloth

"The eclectic nature of Jeffrey Miller's linkages between and among disciplines is not only highly entertaining but demonstrates a level of creativity seldom seen in a 'law and lit' book. Anyone who is a Northrop Frye fan will delight in this book."
Lynn Penrod, University of Alberta

Kingsley Amis
Antimodels and the Audience
Andrew James
978-0-7735-4136-8 $100.00 cloth

"Andrew James deftly and respectfully clears away existing critical opinions about Amis to make room for his own explorations of the novelist's work. His analysis dramatically changes the conversation about an important twentieth-century novelist." John Xiros Cooper, University of British Columbia

TRANSGENDER STUDIES Quarterly

Paisley Currah and Susan Stryker, editors

TSQ offers a venue for interdisciplinary scholarship that contests the objectification, pathologization, and exoticization of transgender lives. Its mission is to examine how "transgender" comes into play as a category, a process, a social assemblage, an increasingly intelligible gender identity, and an identifiable threat to gender normativity.

The first few issues will address the cultural production of trans communities, critical analysis of transgender population studies, transgender biopolitics, and problems of translating gender concepts and practices across linguistic communities.

NEW from NORTON

The Norton Anthology of African American Literature

Third Edition

HENRY LOUIS GATES, JR., Harvard University, and VALERIE A. SMITH, Princeton University, General Editors

The much-anticipated Third Edition offers new selections, with an emphasis on complete longer works and on contemporary writers; new visuals and media; fresh scholarship highlighting the international influence of African American writers; and a new, more flexible, two-volume format. Together, these features make the best-selling anthology in the field an even better teaching tool for instructors and, as always, an unmatched value for students.

Available for examination February 2014

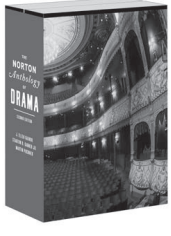

The Norton Anthology of Western Literature

Ninth Edition

MARTIN PUCHNER, Harvard University, General Editor

A completely new editorial team, dozens of new selections and translations, all-new introductions and headnotes, hundreds of illustrations, redesigned maps and timelines, and a completely revamped media program—all add up to the most exciting and teachable version of this classic anthology ever published.

Available for examination January 2014

The Norton Anthology of Drama

Second Edition and Shorter Second Edition

J. ELLEN GAINOR, Cornell University, STANTON B. GARNER, University of Tennessee, and MARTIN PUCHNER, Harvard University, Editors

The leading anthology of drama offers the most generous collection of major works (66 plays in the full edition, 36 plays in the shorter edition—7 of them new) as well as a newly conceived illustration program focused on contemporary performance. The Second Edition now brings the stage to the page more vividly than any other anthology.

The Little Seagull Handbook 2e

RICHARD BULLOCK, MICHAL BRODY, FRANCINE WEINBERG

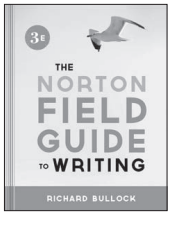

The only pocket-sized handbook that does the work of a full-sized handbook. Now in 2 versions, with and without exercises—and with a version reformatted for mobile devices that can be packaged with the book at no additional cost.

"They Say / I Say": The Moves That Matter in Academic Writing 3e

GERALD GRAFF, CATHY BIRKENSTEIN

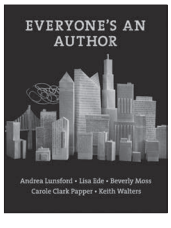

The best-selling book on academic writing, in use at more than 1,500 schools. The new edition includes chapters on writing about literature and using the templates to revise—and is available as an ebook. Accompanied by theysay/iblog, a regularly updated source of readings demonstrating the moves taught in the book, and a space where students can literally join the conversation.

The Norton Field Guides to Writing 3e

RICHARD BULLOCK, MAUREEN DALY GOGGIN, FRANCINE WEINBERG

Flexible, easy to use, just enough detail—and still the number-one best-selling rhetoric. Lets you teach the course you want to teach, with the chapters you want to use. You can get it with a reader, a handbook, or both—and as a print book or ebook. New: The Norton Field Guide to Go, a brief version reformatted for mobile devices that can be packaged for free with the book.

Everyone's an Author

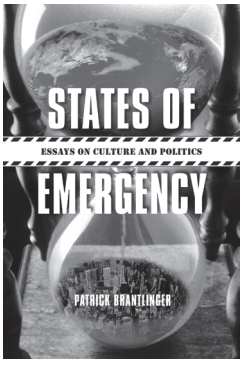

ANDREA LUNSFORD, MICHAL BRODY, LISA EDE, BEVERLY MOSS, CAROLE CLARK PAPPER, KEITH WALTERS

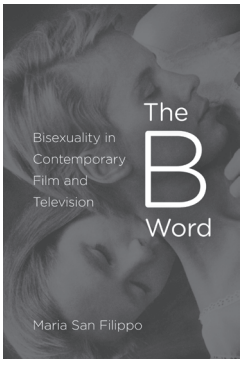

The new rhetoric that focuses on writing as it really is today—with words, images, and sounds; in print and online—and does so in a thoroughly rhetorical framework. You can get it with and without a reader, in print or as an ebook. A companion Tumblr site is updated weekly with photo essays, blog posts, videos, speeches, and more—all searchable by topic, genre, and medium.

Composing Cultures
Modernism, American Literary Studies, and the Problem of Culture
Eric Aronoff
$24.50 | PAPER | CULTURAL FRAMES, FRAMING CULTURE | AMERICAN LITERATURES INITIATIVE
Eric Aronoff illuminates current debates of the term "culture" through an interdisciplinary analysis of its meaning in literary studies and anthropology, finding that approaches often thought of as opposed in fact share certain arguments.

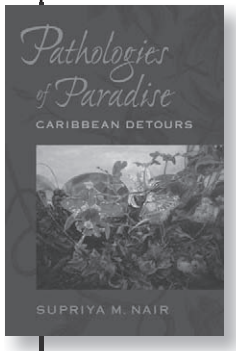

Race, Romance, and Rebellion
Literatures of the Americas in the Nineteenth Century
Colleen C. O'Brien
$24.50 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES | AMERICAN LITERATURES INITIATIVE
Colleen O'Brien shows why, in nineteenth-century literatures of the Americas, stories of racial rebellion coincided with stories of cross-racial romance and how their concern with race and gender drew together the United States, the Caribbean, and Africa.

Disturbers of the Peace
Representations of Madness in Anglophone Caribbean Literature
Kelly Baker Josephs
$24.50 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES | AMERICAN LITERATURES INITIATIVE
Exploring the prevalence of madness in Caribbean texts written in English in the mid-twentieth century, Kelly Baker Josephs shows how madness functions both as a critique of colonialism and as a literary innovation for representing national identity.

The Poetics of Ethnography in Martinican Narratives
Exploring the Self and the Environment
Christina Kullberg
$27.50 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES | MODERN LANGUAGE INITIATIVE
Drawing on narratives from Martinique by Aimé Césaire, Édouard Glissant, Ina Césaire, and Patrick Chamoiseau, among others, Christina Kullberg shows how these writers turn to ethnography—even as they critique it—as an exploration and expression of the self.

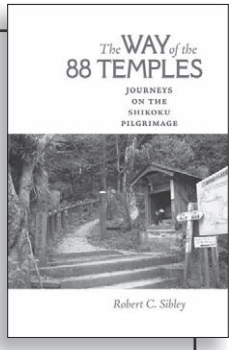

The Cross-Dressed Caribbean
Writing, Politics, Sexualities
Edited by Maria Cristina Fumagalli, Bénédicte Ledent, and Roberto del Valle Alcalá
$35.00 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES
The Cross-Dressed Caribbean uses the trope of transvestism not only to analyze texts and contexts from anglophone, francophone, Spanish, Dutch, and diasporic Caribbean literature and film but also to highlight reinventions of sexuality and resistance to different forms of exploitation and oppression.

Pathologies of Paradise
Caribbean Detours
Supriya M. Nair
$27.50 | PAPER | NEW WORLD STUDIES
Adopting a syncretic approach to anglophone Caribbean literatures, and drawing on the trope of the detour, Supriya Nair reveals a wide variety of New World identities that contest the reduction of the region to Edenic or infernal stereotypes.

The Way of the 88 Temples
Journeys on the Shikoku Pilgrimage
Robert C. Sibley
$23.95 | CLOTH
In recounting his 870-mile trek around the Japanese island of Shikoku and its 88 temples, Robert Sibley re-creates the pilgrimage experience as he learns about Japanese religion and culture from his companions on the journey.

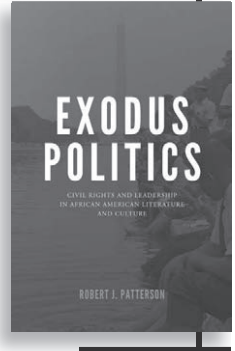

Christian Fundamentalism and the Culture of Disenchantment
Paul Maltby
$24.50 | PAPER
Within the familiar clash of religious conservatism and secular liberalism, Paul Maltby strives for a less simplistic opposition that highlights the limitations and deficiencies of both Christian fundamentalism and the postmodern culture of disenchantment.

Drawing the Line
The Father Reimagined in Faulkner, Wright, O'Connor, and Morrison
Doreen Fowler
$35.00 | CLOTH
Offering a new theoretical model in the psychoanalytic approach to literature, Doreen Fowler draws on the fiction of four major American writers for her focus on the father as a "border figure" who plays a mediating role in initiating gender, race, and other social differences.

The Haverford Discussions
A Black Integrationist Manifesto for Racial Justice
Edited by Michael Lackey
$35.00 | CLOTH
In 1969 a group of distinguished African American intellectuals met at Haverford College in order to devise strategies to dissuade young blacks from adopting a separatist political agenda. This volume makes the historic discussions available, rescuing for the modern reader some of the most eloquent voices in the intellectual history of black America.

Exodus Politics
Civil Rights and Leadership in African American Literature and Culture
Robert J. Patterson
$24.50 | PAPER | AMERICAN LITERATURES INITIATIVE
Drawing on the works of contemporary African American writers, Robert Patterson shows how they challenge the dominant models of civil rights leadership that rely solely on a male figure and that disconnect racial rights from gender and sexual rights.

Best New Poets 2013
50 Poems from Emerging Writers
Edited by Brenda Shaughnessy
Series edited by Jazzy Danziger
$11.95 | PAPER
Entering its eighth year, Best New Poets has established itself as a crucial venue for rising poets and a valuable resource for poetry lovers. The only publication of its kind, this annual anthology is made up exclusively of work by writers who have not yet published a full-length book. The work of the fifty writers represented here provides the best perspective available on the continuing vitality of poetry as it is being practiced today.

Edinburgh Critical Studies in Renaissance Culture

Series Editor: Lorna Hutson, University of St Andrews, Scotland

These books take sophisticated close readings of Renaissance texts and cultural objects to interpret Renaissance culture and its legacy. Authors explore previously unnoticed connections, linking the literary to areas from international law to the Greco-Roman intellectual heritage and from commerce and trade to vernacular languages.

Recently published:

Creative Criticism: An Anthology and Guide

Edited by Stephen Benson and Clare Connors, University of East Anglia, UK

This volume celebrates the inventiveness of works whose entire essence and aim is to change the ways in which we see and describe our world. Examples from Anne Carson to Jacques Derrida, via Geoff Dyer, Hélène Cixous and John Cage demonstrate creative critical writing in practice, while introductions to each piece and to the book as a whole provide context and structure for students embarking on creative critical writing projects of their own.

The Principles of Sufism

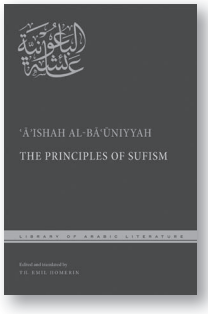

ʿĀʾISHAH AL-BĀʿŪNIYYAH
Edited and translated by TH. EMIL HOMERIN
$30.00 • CLOTH

A mystic and a poet, ʿĀʾishah al-Bāʿūniyyah (d. 923/1517) of Damascus was one of the greatest women scholars in Islamic history. Her spiritual guidebook, The Principles of Sufism, draws on lessons and readings from a centuries-old Sufi tradition to recount the fundamental stages and states of the transformative journey toward a mystical union with God.

"The pressure of globalisation on serious literary creation continues to increase unabated."
— Gao Xingjian, Nobel Prize Winner in Literature

In this incisive and cogently argued book, expertly translated by Dr. Mabel Lee, Nobel Laureate Gao Xingjian exposes the political dynamics of so-called "modernity" in Western literature and art. He also analyzes traditional and modern European and Chinese notions of fiction, theatre, and art and elaborates on writers and artists from both cultures. This book is the key to understanding Gao's cosmopolitan works.

Milton and the Poetics of Freedom

Susanne Woods

"Freedom" is a powerful term with elastic meanings and contradictory uses; it has both driven rebellion and justified empire. In this important new study, Susanne Woods reveals John Milton's central place in the evolution both of ideas of freedom in English-speaking culture and in creating a poetics that actually invites readers to enact the freedom Milton defines. For Milton, we find, freedom is fundamentally about human choice; thus, Milton must offer his reader opportunities to consider alternatives, even to his own well-argued positions.

Milton Studies 54

Edited by Laura L. Knoppers

The 11 essays in Milton Studies 54 offer new and groundbreaking perspectives on topics of current scholarly interest. Contributors examine Milton's angelic narrators; Adam's nativity and vitalism; Miltonic authorship, gender, and music in Comus; satanic self-fashioning; Areopagitica and religion in the public sphere; Edenic worship and iconoclasm; the process of theology in De doctrina Christiana; Milton's reworking of epic hospitality; Limbo and the Lucretian swerve; and early black women writers' uses of Milton.

Milton's Rival Hermeneutics

"Reason Is But Choosing"

Edited by Richard J. DuRocher and Margaret Olofson Thickstun

"Eminent scholars such as Teskey, Wittreich, Diane McColley, Stella Revard, and many others have produced some of their best work for the occasion. A fine example of the potential benefits of intertextuality." —SEL Studies in English Literature, 1500–1900

ISBN 978-0-8207-0450-0 / $58.00 cloth

Rethinking Shakespeare's Skepticism

The Aesthetics of Doubt in the Sonnets and Plays

Suzanne M. Tartamella

Tartamella casts new light on seemingly quite familiar material—Shakespeare's Sonnets and a number of his plays, including Hamlet, The Taming of the Shrew, and Antony and Cleopatra. By placing the Sonnets within the context of the literary history of praise poetry, and exploring the underlying influence of early modern skepticism on Shakespeare's writing, this book truly enhances our understanding of the subtleties and complexities in all of Shakespeare's work.

the SHELBY CULLOM DAVIS CENTER for HISTORICAL STUDIES

http://www.princeton.edu/dav/

In the Aftermath of Catastrophe

During the academic years 2014/15 and 2015/16, the Shelby Cullom Davis Center for Historical Studies will take as its theme "In the aftermath of catastrophe." What happens in the wake of cataclysmic experiences: war, civil war, genocide, imperial collapse, natural disaster? The aim in part is to understand processes of reconstruction but not only that. How was the experience of catastrophe remembered and memorialized; how was trauma conceived and dealt with; how was the post-catastrophic present understood in relation to the pre-disaster past? As always, we hope to address these questions from a wide variety of periods and places, from prehistory to the present and from all parts of the world.

The Center will offer a limited number of research fellowships for one or two semesters, running from September to January and from February to June. Early career scholars must have their doctoral degrees in hand at the time of the application. Fellows are expected to live in Princeton in order to take an active part in the intellectual interchange with other members of the Seminar. Funds are limited, and candidates are, therefore, strongly urged to apply to other grant-giving institutions as well as the Center if they wish to come for a full year.

To apply please link to: http://jobs.princeton.edu, requisition #1300300. The deadline for receipt of applications and letters of recommendation for fellowships for 2014/2015 is December 1, 2013. Please note that we will not accept faxed applications. Applicants must apply online and submit a CV, cover letter, research proposal, abstract of proposal, and contact information for three references. For further information about the Davis Center, please go to http://www.princeton.edu/dav. Princeton University is an equal opportunity employer and complies with applicable EEO and affirmative action regulations.

NYU GRADUATE SCHOOL OF ARTS & SCIENCE

NYU Madrid

M.A. PROGRAMS IN SPANISH AND LATIN AMERICAN LINGUISTIC, LITERARY AND CULTURAL STUDIES (CONCENTRATIONS IN LITERARY AND CULTURAL STUDIES OR APPLIED LINGUISTICS), AND IN TEACHING SPANISH AS A FOREIGN LANGUAGE WITH TESOL

Drawing on the resources of NYU and the city of Madrid, the M.A. brings a transatlantic perspective to the study of the Spanish-speaking world. M.A. candidates study at NYU Madrid's site and the historic Instituto Internacional, both close to the city center. Day and weekend study-visits, guest lectures, and a Graduate Research Symposium complete the academic program. Students in Literary and Cultural Studies or Applied Linguistics complete the M.A. in one year, and may take courses at the Universidad Autónoma de Madrid. Students in Teaching Spanish as a Foreign Language complete a second year in New York.

APPROACHES TO TEACHING WORLD LITERATURE

Now more than one hundred volumes, the MLA's popular Approaches to Teaching World Literature series addresses a broad range of literary texts. Each volume surveys teaching aids and critical material and brings together essays that apply a variety of perspectives to the teaching of the text. In these essays, experienced teachers discuss approaches and methods of presentation that they have found effective in keeping classroom discussions lively.

Unless otherwise noted, each volume is available in a cloth edition for $37.50 (MLA members $30.00) and in a paper edition for $19.75 (MLA members $15.80).

COMMONS

commons.mla.org

MLA Commons helps facilitate more interactive member-to-member communication, supports the work of divisions and discussion groups, and provides a space for members to share research. On the Commons, members can work collaboratively and explore new modes of scholarship.

A live presentation on how to use MLA Commons will be held at the 2014 MLA Convention in Chicago in the Exhibit Hall Theater, located inside the MLA exhibit hall (Sheraton Chicago, River Exhibition Hall, level 1). Volunteers will be available throughout the convention to demonstrate the platform's function and to assist with account activation in the registration area.

How does the MLA work for you?

Promotes the study of language and literature

Publishes your scholarship

Hosts an annual convention where you can share your work

Compiles the Job Information List

Creates opportunities for scholarly interaction—visit the new MLA Commons

The Modern Language Association is a community of nearly 28,000 members dedicated to strengthening the study and teaching of language and literature. The MLA makes it possible for you to

- search the MLA Job Information List at no charge
- read reports and surveys issued by the MLA on the job market, enrollments, evaluating scholarship, and the state of scholarly publishing
- benefit from public outreach activities, including the popular MLA Language Map
- download the Academic Workforce Advocacy Kit, a tool for helping improve conditions for teachers and students
- access the MLA Handbook Web site and FAQs about MLA style

Become an MLA member at www.mla.org and receive the following benefits:

- subscriptions to PMLA and the MLA Newsletter
- access to directories of members and departmental administrators
- a 20% discount on all MLA titles
- ability to read the ADE Bulletin or ADFL Bulletin online and search bulletin archives if your department is a member of the Association of Departments of English (ADE) or the Association of Departments of Foreign Languages (ADFL)
- the MLA Directory of Periodicals, a searchable database that provides submission requirements, editorial addresses, and subscription information for over 4,000 journals in the humanities

Three easy ways to join:

- Visit www.mla.org.
- E-mail membership@mla.org to request a membership packet.
- Call 646 576-5151.

The MLA Annual Convention
