Nominating Committee Offers 2002–2003 Slate

The Association's 2002 Nominating Committee convened at the national office on February 1 and 2 and agreed upon the following slate of Officers and Council members.

President-Elect:
Susanne Rudolph,
University of Chicago

Vice President:
Michael C. Dawson,
University of Chicago
(Harvard University as of July 1)
Margaret Levi,
University of Washington
Stephen Macedo,
Princeton University

Secretary:
Peter Katzenstein,
Cornell University

Council:
Martha Crenshaw,
Wesleyan University
Christian Davenport,
University of Maryland
Frances Hagopian,
University of Notre Dame
Marsha Pripstein Posusney,
Bryant College
Wilbur Rich,
Wellesley College
Gary Segura,
University of Iowa
Jack Snyder,
Columbia University
Jeff Spinner-Halev,
University of Nebraska, Lincoln

Detailed biographical information about the 2002–03 slate will be printed in the June issue of PS and will be available via APSANet <www.apsanet.org>.

Members of the Association will have an opportunity to meet the nominees at a special gathering on Thursday, August 29, in Boston as part of the APSA Annual Meeting. Elections will be held at the Business Meeting on Saturday, August 31. Procedures for nominations from the floor are set down in Article V (1,2) of the APSA constitution <www.apsanet.org/about/governance>.

Serving on the 2002 Nominating Committee were Amy Gutmann, Princeton University (chair); Rodney Hero, University of Notre Dame; Evelyn Huber, University of North Carolina; David Laitin, Stanford University; Cheryl Miller, University of Maryland, Baltimore County; and Joanna Scott, Eastern Michigan University.

Monroe Nominated as Vice President

The Nominating Committee also nominated Kristen Monroe, professor of political at the University of California, Irvine, to fulfill the unexpired 2001–2002 term for vice president previously held by Rita Mae Kelly. The Council will vote via email.

Putnam Speaks at NPSA

APSA President Robert D. Putnam spoke about "American Society and American Political Science After 9/11/01" as part of the thirty-third meeting of the Northeastern Political Science Association and the International Studies Association-Northeast, which was held in Philadelphia in November 2001.

More than 500 politcal scientists participated in over 100 panels. In addition, there were featured speakers like E.J. Dionne, the Pi Sigma Alpha speaker, Joan Tronto, who spoke at the NPSA Women's Caucus meeting; and ISA President Bruce Bueno De Mesquita, who spoke at the ISA-Northeast plenary.

The 2002 NPSA meeting will take place November 7–9 in Providence, Rhode Island. To learn more contact 2002 Program Chair Program Sunil Ahuja at Ahujasun@shu.edu.

www.apsanet.org

Have you logged onto APSANet Lately?

Changes are on the way for APSANet. Now available is a new online program called MyAPSA, a members-only component that will provide users better access to information. Keep visiting the site to see what is coming up.

PSonline
Looking for past issues of PS? No need to dig too deep. Now you can find full-text issues online going back to 1997. At the same time be sure to check out our PS essay-paks, collections of articles with similar themes.

APSR Online
For the first time find full-text articles from the current APSR on the web. This new feature is available to APSA members only.

Visit often at www.apsanet.org

https://doi.org/10.1017/S1049096502000355 Published online by Cambridge University Press