a few hours in this case, but the boy, who was polymorphous-perverse, sublimated his libido by teasing the cat, and recovery ensued. Such a case as this proves the value of psychoanalysis, for had he been psychoanalysed he would undoubtedly have recovered. That he was not psychoanalysed was not the fault of psychoanalysis, but because of the fact that no psychoanalyst was on the spot. I could go on writing like this for yards if you like. BALLINASLOE ASYLUM.

IN publishing the following item of news, which appeared in the daily press in Ireland, we think it only fair to express our conviction that the deplorable state of things described as existing in Ballinasloe Asylum is altogether exceptional as regards Irish asylums generally. The fact that both the Medical Superintendent and the Senior Assistant Medical Officer are absent on military service may possibly be regarded as an extenuating circumstance. But, while admitting that some derangement of management may have been due to this cause, it is difficult to account for such a general demoralisation of an asylum staff as would permit of the occurrence of the reprehensible conditions disclosed in the Inspectors' report. We shall await with interest the result of the sworn inquiry which is to be held into the circumstances:

BALLINASLOE LUNATIC ASYLUM.

The Inspectors' Report.

Sworn Inquiry asked.

(From our Correspondent.)

Ballinasloe, April 3rd.

At the meeting of the Ballinasloe Asylum Committee to-day the report of the Lunacy Inspectors on their recent inspection of the institution was read. It stated that the patients in some of the male and female divisions were huddled together, practically naked, in a cold ward, lying on wet straw, and the condition of things was scandalous. They did not think that in any civilised country such a condition of things existed as they found in the wards visited. It was hard to realise that creatures who could neither speak nor act for themselves would be left in such a manner.

The Chairman said it was a very strong report.

Mr. Millar asked who was responsible for the awful state of things.

The Clerk said that Dr. Kirwan, R.M.S. (who was in the R.A.M.C.), had said that it would take £3 nightly to keep clothes on the patients and furniture in the divisions referred to.

The Acting R.M.S. (Dr. English) said that she was not aware that the patients were treated in the manner stated, and it had never been reported to her. The proper thing was to hold an inquiry.

It was decided to call for a sworn inquiry on the Inspectors' report.

ASYLUMS ROLL OF HONOUR.

WE have been requested by Dr. Tighe, of Gateshead Borough Asylum, to state that Dr. Hubert Shield, First Assistant Medical Officer, joined the R.A.M.C. in November, 1914, and that fourteen members of the male staff have joined the colours.

[This should have appeared in the January issue of the Journal, and we regret that it was omitted through oversight.—ED.]
