PUBLICATION DATES FOR VOLUME 71 AND ONWARDS

Publication dates of each issue in a volume of Edinburgh Journal of Botany have until now been supplied in the Volume Contents at the end of the final issue but, as it is impossible to foresee accurately the publication date of the final issue, the printed date may occasionally differ by a day or two. To avoid this serious problem, we have decided to print the publication dates of Volume 71 in the first issue of Volume 72 (see below). From this issue onward, the publication date of an issue will be provided on the back cover of the following issue. Thus, the publication date of Volume 72 No. 1 will appear on the back cover of Volume 72 No. 2, and so on.

VOLUME 71 (2014)
