Ecclesiastical History Society

Editors: Peter Clarke and Charlotte Methuen
Assistant editor: Tim Grass

The aim of the Ecclesiastical History Society is to foster the study of ecclesiastical history viewed in a wide historical context and broad inter-disciplinary relationship, without regard to denominational differences or divisions. The Society holds regular meetings and conferences. Membership is open to scholars of all nationalities, and to libraries and institutions.

Studies in Church History is an annually published series comprising papers and communications delivered at the Society's conferences. Each volume presents important new work, by established as well as by younger scholars, upon a particular theme. Volumes are available to members of the Society at a reduced price.

Studies in Church History: Subsidia was designed to supplement the Society's annual series and to extend and diversify its publications. Volumes vary in length, but otherwise have a similar format to Studies in Church History.
