Proceedings of the ASIL Annual Meeting

Proceedings of the ASIL Annual Meeting (Proceedings) is the official record of the American Society of International Law's Annual Meeting. It documents the array of presentations, addresses and discussions among scholars, practitioners, judges, government officials, and advocates from around the world who meet each year to discuss the most salient international legal issues of the day. For over a century, the Annual Meeting has been among the most important gatherings of international law professionals, bringing together more than 1,200 participants from some 75 countries. Proceedings serves as an indispensable account of the state of international law throughout the world.

Submission Guidelines

Process

Proceedings does not accept unsolicited submissions. Each Volume documents the year's Annual Meeting. Shortly after each Meeting, presenters are invited to submit a written version of their presentation by a particular deadline.

It is the policy of the American Society of International Law not to take an official position, by resolution or otherwise, upon controversial questions. The views expressed in the addresses, remarks, and discussions delivered at the ASIL Annual Meeting and appearing in Proceedings are those of the individual speakers and are not to be taken as representing the views of the Society.

To Submit

Annual Meeting presenters should submit their contribution by the agreed deadline via Proceedings' online submission system here.

Style

All submissions should follow AJIL style which can be found here.

After Submission

Proof Corrections

Authors will be sent a PDF proof and asked to return their corrections within 2-3 days. Only essential typographical or factual errors may be changed at proof stage.

Copyright

Upon acceptance of their contribution, authors will be asked to sign an Author Agreement. Any material subject to copyright restrictions other than those owned or controlled by the contributor must be accompanied by appropriate permissions from the relevant copyright holder(s).

Re-use Policy

Proceedings encourages authors to take full advantage of its flexible Green Open Access policy. The Version of Record may be immediately posted on a personal or departmental website or institutional repository. The Accepted Manuscript may be posted in a non-commercial subject repository. While the journal does not allow the posting of the Accepted Manuscript or Version of Record on commercial repositories, we encourage authors to post an earlier draft and abstract of their journal article and a link to the Version of Record that sits on the Cambridge website, to direct visitors to the definitive, citable work. Full details of this policy can be found in the can be found here.

Offprints

Authors will receive a link to a freely accessible version of their article online for their personal use and to distribute to their personal contacts, subject to the conditions of the Licence to Publish Form. Print offprints may be ordered and purchased at cost at proof stage.

Online-Ahead-of-Print

All contributions will be scheduled for publication in the appropriate Volume of Proceedings. To reduce time between acceptance and publication, contributions may appear online as FirstView publications in advance of their scheduled publication in an issue.
